Detailed Reviewer's Report

This research paper conducted to synthesise evidence on the relationships between land acquisition risk, community consent, grievance redress mechanism (GRM) effectiveness, and project success. In this manuscript the Abstract is written in a detailed format in which all things have been mentioned properly such as title, methods, sample, results, etc., Also, the keywords are given properly. But the writing style in abstract is not correct. Abstract must be written in only one paragraph. Here the researcher has used four paragraphs. In the introduction part, the researcher has made link of introduction with the title and but has not given a detailed background effectively. The Methodology is given in a proper way in which research questions or objectives are given properly. However, Results are also not given properly and the discussion is not in detail. No comparison of results with the findings of previous researches is given in this manuscript. Also, the educational implications, limitations and further suggestions are not given in this manuscript properly. Thus, this paper is accepted only after these minor changes.

REVIEWER'S REPORT

In this manuscript the Abstract is written in a detailed format in which all things such as sample, method, findings etc. has been mentioned properly. Also, the keywords are given properly but the writing style in abstract is not correct. The abstract must be in only one paragraph.

Introduction

In the introduction part, the researcher has made link of introduction with the title but has not given a detailed background effectively. The introduction part can be elaborated more.

Methodology

Methodology is given in a proper way in this manuscript. Also, the researcher has mentioned the research questions or objectives properly in this manuscript such as 1. How does land acquisition risk influence infrastructure project success? 2. What role does community consent play in shaping project outcomes? 3. How do grievance redress mechanisms affect project performance? 4. How can these constructs be integrated into a unified explanatory framework?

Results

The result section is not given in a proper way in this manuscript. The findings are not given in detail with narrative proofs.

Discussion

The discussion section in this study is not given properly and the researcher has not made comparisons of results with previous studies. Also, further suggestions, limitations and implications have not been provided by the researcher by which the validity of research papers decreases and becomes less effective.

Conclusion

Overall the research paper is good and important, and some important things have been mentioned properly but some are missing. Thus, this manuscript is accepted only after making these minor changes mentioned above.
