Detailed Reviewer's Report

This research paper tries to understand the causes and impacts of family conflict on children's educational aspects, exploring how these familial interactions contribute to the development of educational and social behaviors. In this manuscript the Abstract is written in a detailed format in which all things have been mentioned such as title, methods, sample, results, etc., But the format is not correct. The abstract should be in only one paragraph. However, the keywords are properly given. In the introduction part, the researcher has tried to make link of introduction with the title effectively but some of the citations are not properly given. The review of related literature is given in this manuscript. The Methodology is given, also the research questions or objectives are mentioned in this manuscript properly. Results are given and also the discussion is given properly but the comparison of results with the findings of previous researches was not made properly in this manuscript. Also, the educational implications, limitations and further suggestions are not given in this manuscript. Thus, this paper is accepted only after correcting these minor changes.

Reason for Minor changes

In this manuscript, the abstract is given in detail but the format is not good. It should be only in one paragraph. In the introduction section some of the citations are not given. In review of literature some reviews are too old. Also, some references are missing. In result and discussion section the comparisons of results with previous findings was not made. In addition to this, the educational implications, limitations and further suggestions are not given in this manuscript. Thus, this paper is accepted only after correcting these minor changes.

REVIEWER'S REPORT

In this manuscript, Abstract is given in a detailed way but the writing format is not good. The Abstract is always written in a detailed format in all research papers, in which all things such as sample, method, findings etc. are mentioned properly. It must be written in one paragraph. Here the researcher has written in various paragraphs. However, the keywords are given in this manuscript properly.

Introduction

In the introduction part, the researcher has tried to make link of introduction with the title effectively. But some of the citations are not given properly.

Review of related literature

In this manuscript the researcher has mentioned the review of literature. However, some of the literature was too old. That cannot be compared with the present study. In addition to this, some review was used without proper references.

Methodology

Methodology section is given in this manuscript properly and the research objectives or questions are given such as: 1. Assess how much student academic performance is negatively impacted by family conflicts. 2. To determine whether male or female students are more affected by family conflict. 3. To determine children's perspectives on their parents, peers, and school as they are victims of family conflict.

Results

The result section is given properly in this manuscript. All important points have been highlighted by the researcher broadly.

Discussion

The discussion section in this study is given. But, the researcher has not made comparisons of results with the findings of previous studies. Also, the educational implications, limitations and further suggestions have not been provided by the researcher in this manuscript by which the validity of research papers decreases and becomes less effective.

Conclusion

Overall the research paper is good and important, and some important things have been mentioned properly but some are missing. Thus, this manuscript is accepted only after making these minor changes mentioned above.
