Reviewer's Comment for Publication.

The manuscript presents a relevant conceptual framework integrating strategic sourcing and contract governance in Saudi Arabia's entertainment sector. It clearly discusses supplier selection, contractual accountability, performance monitoring, risk management, and digital traceability. However, the methodology for the literature review should be described more precisely, and the references and official data should be checked for accuracy and consistency. The practical applicability of the proposed framework could also be explained more clearly. Minor revisions are recommended to improve the manuscript's rigor and presentation.
